

The Istrian Development Agency IDA, in partnership with Unioncamere Veneto – Eurosportello Veneto – Lead Beneficiary of the project, is pleased to invite you to the final conference of BLUE TECH Adrion Cluster project that will be held on October 21, at Mletacka 12/IV Pula, IDA premises.

The project was co-funded by the "Target call on European Strategy for the Adriatic and Ionian Region EUSAIR IPA Adriatic Cross-border Cooperation Programme 2007 - 2013" with the aim of contributing to the development of a macro-regional Cluster in green shipbuilding technologies and new materials in the Adriatic-Ionian area, in order to achieve the objectives of EUSAIR Strategy Pillar 1 "Blue Technologies".

During the final conference will be illustrate the feasibility study for an Adriatic – Ionian Macro Regional Cluster in the Green Shipbuilding technologies and new material. focused on analysis of policies, recognition of technological trajectories, recognition of the clusters and the governance models and proposal for a cluster governance model in the Adriatic – Ionian macroregion.

Please find attached the detailed program of the event and the registration form, please send it within 14.10.2016.

For more information about the event, please contact: Edo Cetina; e-mail: edo.cetina@ida.hr

Best regards,